Editors note:

The above is printed here for the several different leads and information that it contains. There is much research being done now in the Barbadoes Islands. Several publications are out containing indexes of many, who came from England first and then later after landing at the Barbadoes Islands, they would petition for land in America and come over and become citizens. I have read one reference in which it stated that the Tynes family were ship builders and that they came to America, via the Barbadoes Islands.

Fleming Tynes II married Jane Warren a daughter of John Warren and Elizabeth Perkins. Their daughter Elizabeth Tynes married Dr. John R. Conerley of Pike County, Ms., N.C., and Sabine Parish, La.

All of these children remained in this county. NOTE: Daniel Rees was not always in Marion County. He lived for a time in Louisiana and then in Hinds County Mississippi, but sold his land there and removed to Marion County where he died. J.F.S. One daughter, Elizabeth married Sampson Ball October 1800. Ref: P. 102, Vol. 111 Midway Congregational Church Records, Georgia Historical Society, Savannah, Ga. Martha Warren married William Rankin (Another family found in Marion County to day, J.F.S. He was a native of Ireland and a first cousin of John C. Calhoun of South Carolina, noted statesman of that state. William Rankin had a brother James Rankin. They came from Ireland to South Carolina and were reared in the home of Patrick Calhoun, their Uncle. The Rankin brothers were orphans. They migrated to Mississippi in 1818. James Rankin later went to Texas. (Note: I have met his descendants here in Fort Worth, J.F.S.)

Bible Record contained in the D.A.R. papers on file in Reg. Gen's office in the papers of Lola Warren O'Ferrall, now deceased, but formerly a member of the D.A.R. Chapter at El Derado Arkansas, transferred to Pelican Chapter, D.A.R. Shreveport, Louisiana.

This Bible record can be found in the possession of Mrs. Rankin, Sandy Hook Mississippi, who lives in the old John Ford House on Pearl River. I had a copy but sent it to Washington when I was fighting for the correction in the D.A.R. papers of Mrs. O'Ferrall who had been a member of D.A.R. for twenty years on the service of the wrong John Warren. As given he was from Guilford Co. N.C. She deserved to have the service of Captain John Warren of Liberty County Georgia and of Craven County South Carolina. J.F.S.

Hist. of Amite Co. Miss. Vol. 1- by Casey and Otkins gives the land grant of John Warren.

Annals of Liberty Co. Ga. by Wilson gives record of the sale of the land of John Warren and wife Elizabeth when they removed to Mississippi.

Elizabeth Perkins was the daughter of Rees and Elizabeth Perkins of Craven Co.

Prince Frederick Parish, South Carolina.

Rees Elizabeth Perkins was of Rees and Elizabeth. His wife, born April 1, 1741 baptized 10-22-1761 by Rev. James Warner
Page 44-Reg. Prince Frederick Parish, S.C.

The Warren family cemetery is located near Sandy Hook, Marion County, Mississippi, very near the old residence built by Jesse Warren who was the father of Mr. Liberty Warren mentioned by the W.P. interviewer on the Marion County Writers Project found in the Archives at Jackson Mississippi.

This old Warren home is occupied by the sister of Mr. Liberty Warren and is in a good state of preservation.

John Warren and his wife, Elizabeth Perkins Warren, with Daniel Rees Warren and his wife, Martha Seal Warren are all buried in this cemetery. I have seen the graves.

Ann Wilmath Smith Warren is buried in a cemetery not too far from Sandy Hook and I have seen this grave also, in company with Mr. Liberty Warren.

I have visited the old home of John Ford one of the Warren sisters married the son of John Ford. She it was who supplied Mrs. O'Ferrall with the Bible record as she had kept it. Mrs. Rankin lives in this old Ford home and has the records kept by her husband who was the authority on all of these families who were related to each other. I searched her records, too, with her courteous permission. Some of these same Ford's got into Jackson County at Pascagoula, and intermarried with the Garrazin family connections. Ford and Ford-Asternow there are some of this family. (It was Sarah Warren who married the son of John Ford.)

lands so sold as aforesaid. Now therefore in consideration of the premises as well as the further consideration of one thousand dollars paid at and before the sealing and delivery

Warren

Dear Jean:

yesterday someone sent me an excerpt from "Who married whom in Wayne County" which excited me a great deal. It read 1833 Eliz. Rebecca Warren <sup>born SC 1815</sup> married Josiah Roberts born SC 1810. married Wayne County.

I knew Rebecca Warren married Josiah Roberts (also as Joseph) and I thought 1833 because the first child was born in 1834. But two things I did not know. I did not know her first name was Elizabeth and I did not know the marriage took place in Wayne County. I have been trying for 37 years to determine where the marriage took place.

Joseph M. Warren first appeared in Wayne in 1822 - was there in 1823 & 1824. He was in Simpson in 1825. patented land in Simpson in 1826, on Simpson tax rolls on 1827 & 1828 - patented land in Rankin in 1828. On Rankin Co census 1830, in 1831 he purchased slaves. I lost him then until 1837 when he sold the land in Rankin.

So, you see if Rebecca married in Wayne, her father may have gone back to Wayne. He was very good about paying taxes & with the exception of the years 1831-1837, I have him traced every year until he moved to Texas in 1851. I've run tax rolls for several central MS counties & have not found him on tax rolls for these "lost" years.

Had he been in Rankin in 1833, Rebecca's marriage should have been there and it is not. Rankin's marriages did not begin. Joseph m's first wife (Rebecca Walker) died & he remarried Luina (may have been Louitt) and his marriage record is not in Rankin either. (He could have married her in Simpson). So you can see, I would like to run them down in 1833 when Rebecca married.

Do you happen to remember where you found this record — or who sent it to you? I could easily have sent it myself except for the Elizabeth as a first name (which I didn't know but which makes sense as her first daughter was named Eliza) and marrying in Wayne County.

And, Jean, you know too, I've always thought the Charles Roberts of Wayne County was Joseph Roberts' father, but I've never been able to prove it. Finding this marriage took place in Wayne might help put the Roberts' in Wayne. If you have time to drop me a note, I'd appreciate it.

Love,
Boblyz

I've been enjoying my "who married whom in Crumpton".

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Dear Jean:

I surely can relate to your problem of having too much to do. I don't work out from under my correspondence once a year - not completely!

I am so excited that you & Ben will be with us in Ms. Genealogical Society. That is great!

I am so happy to hear about the catholic records in Mobile. That is good news. How I hope Charles Roberts came there early and that he got recorded. He came ahead of these families. Rev. Bishop told me he came with because he was on Wayne 1817 tax rolls. Do you happen to remember what year he was on Jackson Co tax roll?

I had a bit of good luck Tues. I went to Brandon to check what I thought was going to be deeds where he bought and sold land. Two of them were deeds where he sold off land to move to Newton County. (I'm talking about my Joseph M. Warren)

The other instrument was a bill of sale for the purchase of 8 slaves. Norma Anderson had sent me an autobiography of Ezekiel Wesley Walker in which he stated his parents were Ezekiel Walker and Frances Lee. Two houses from Ezekiel Wesley Walker on 1850 Smith County census was a couple Benjamin and Frances Thornton. Norma had concluded that Frances Thornton was the widow of Ezekiel Walker.

This bill of sale showed Benjamin Thornton selling slaves to Joseph M. Warren. This didn't sink in immediately, but then it hit me. There it is - what I'm looking for. This is a family affair!

This is a case of Ezekiel Walker's widow, sold - slaves sold - inherited from Ezekiel Walker's estate to her step son-in-law, Joseph M. Warren, he having been married to Rebecca Walker. It was witnessed by Ezekiel Walker's son, Hiram Walker. Can you believe finding this neat little package wrapped up with a bow around it after all these years of trying to prove which Joseph Warren was mine? I knew ~~that~~ <sup>my</sup> Joseph married Rebecca Walker but I did not know which Walker was her father. I had considered Hizekiah and Ezekiel. Glad it was Ezekiel as I know who his parents were & I don't know Hizekiah Walkers heritage.

I'd love to have the <sup>address of the</sup> Ezekiel Walker descendant you know if you think she is interested in genealogy. I believe we'll be able to put together Ezekiel's family. This would be the Ezekiel Walker, son of Isaac & Elizabeth Stuart Walker of Prince George County, Md who went to Edgefield, SC circa 1790 & came on to MS Wayne County ca 1818. I already had Rev. Francis Walker as an ancestor and now I have two of Isaac's sons - just as I already had two of Rev. Francis' sons - Asa and Richard.

I'm interested in this Frank Gibson. In addition to Warren, isn't he a descendant of Ezekiel Walker? Some lady called me once & caught me in the kitchen without a pen. She said not to worry about it; that she would write but never did.

You always heard it said that you never know what you are going to find what you need, but I think I struck it rich when one bill of sales identified not only which Joseph Warren was mine but also identified Rebecca's father.

Then it hit me that Joseph M. Warren had two slaves on the tax rolls beginning in 1827. I know this was from Ezekiel's estate.

This is speculation, but John Warren moved to Simpson about 1829 and he had three slaves, probably of less value per each as Joseph M. paid 1.75 tax on two & John paid 1.87 1/2 for 3. I wonder if John & Joseph M. were brothers & that John married another of Ezekiel's daughters. Brothers often married sisters back then.

I always enjoy hearing from you. If you don't have Mrs. Benjamin Thornton identified in your library, you can make a notation that she was Frances Lee, who m. (1) Ezekiel Walker as his second wife and 2. Benjamin Thornton. Ezekiel Wesley Walker did not know what he was doing for posterity when he wrote that autobiography. I think she said Frank Gibson was the one who unearthed it and that is why I thought he was an Ezekiel descendant. From what the lady said (the one who called), Ezekiel's family was rather affluent.

Thank you for all your good help -

Fondly,
Bobbie

Dear Jean,

Just a note to let you know that I heard from Joe W. Baxter of Montgomery, Ala. He sent me a copy of the Warren genealogy that he had done. It seems to be well documented except for Samuel's family which doesn't make sense. His story is that Samuel's son Liberty was born out of wedlock to Elizabeth Harrell and that the mother of the other children was Elizabeth Melville, and that all those Warrens in Greene Co. did not belong to Samuel but some were children of his brother Jesse who had died in Ga.

He had not seen nor could he explain the "acts of the Ms. Legislature giving John Warren permission to sell land belonging to heirs of Samuel Warren" naming Elizabeth as one of them.

I've decided there's a lot more work to be done on the Warren's but I can't get around to it for awhile as I am committed to my husband's Ark. ancestry for the next few months.

If I were you I would wait on publishing anything definite on Samuel's family and I will let you know if and when I find something.

Yours truly,

Reba B. Murphey

Dear Jean:

you were so dear to send me the Chas. Roberts document. I am most appreciative! I had ordered an early Charles Roberts land grant once which I seem to have misplaced. I do not know if it were for the Mobile Chas Roberts or possibly another.

I believe the Chas Roberts who was in Wayne County on tax rolls 1818-1823 & on Wayne 1820 census was the Charles Roberts on Edgefield, S C census <sup>in 1810</sup> with wife and infant daughter. So many of the other Wayne settlers came from Edgefield, Pa, Bishop told me my Roberts came to MS with the Walkers, Bishops, Murrays, Bushs, McCarty's & other allied families. Charles Roberts was the only one I could find there at that time.

I have not been able to prove that he was my Joseph's father. Joseph had a sister Rebecca who married Linear Rankin. They named a son Charles Richard Rankin. We know Linear's father was Richard so thought the Charles may have been for her father — a child named for his two grand-fathers, those are my only two clues that Charles was Joseph Roberts' father. I may be barking up the wrong tree!

I have asked someone to co-sponsor you and ~~Bill~~ for MS Genealogical Society membership. Please send a 'short resume' on each of you so that I'll have data to write a letter of recommendation. (School, church, club affiliations, etc).

I am enclosing another newsletter from Historical Society. Thought you might like an extra copy. Congratulations on your win! Glad to know ye! It was a well-deserved honor. I did not get to attend the meeting; we were having the State Assembly of DAC that day. It was funny - Jean Aldridge ran into me in the hall and thought I was on my way to the Historical Society meeting so walked all the way down the hall with me before she discovered I was going elsewhere.

Know you enjoyed your over 17 Seminar. That was the day Jim Soc'y met. I like Mary Warren. She is so dedicated.

I wish I could get my Warrens established. Which sets of Warrens are covered by the MSS you have? The John Warren of Marion County with a son Joseph and a brother <sup>Joseph</sup> back in Georgia was not mine. They were in MS early and in Georgia real early - I think before the Am Revolution. The Joseph who was in Cowington County and went back to Franklin County to bring his mother Rebecca (widow of Lott) to MS in 1809 was not mine either. But I think maybe his nephew was mine - son of one of Joseph's older brothers. Lott was in Edgefield and had deeks, etc ... etc. - but at many other connections, but moved to Ga -

There was a Joseph m. Warren on Wayne County, MS census in 1820 who may have been mine. Several Joseph's moved to Rankin before 1830 for a short time.
I know two of Rebecca's sisters: Katie Warren
m Bishop; Susan Warren m George Overby; and Rebecca warren m. Joseph Roberts (mine). Their father was Joseph and their mother was Rebecca Walker. I checked their census records (the sisters) and they were born in SC, so if the census records were correct, the first two Joseph's whom I ruled out could not have been their father as they were already in Ga + MS, <sup>(when these sisters were born in SC)</sup>

Lott's son Hackley who was in Connington County circa 1820 moved to Smith by 1850, next door to Simpson. He was born in 1772 which would make him old enough to be Rebecca's grandfather.
If Hackley were the father, he had to have had a previous marriage + an earlier set of children. His wife on 1850 census was 20 years younger than he and they had a younger family.

Lott also had other sons who could have had a son Joseph — sons who did not even come to MS, I have no indication that Joseph's father was in our state. Oh, well! One of these days!

If I can iron out the wrinkles back to Lott,
I have it back to Thomas who bought the ~~f~~ land from Thos Rolfe on which the first brick house in

Pascagoula Public Library

Virginia was ~~bought~~ built. I'm just weak in one little link, I just know I go back to Lott, the family names are the same. If you have a brain storm on this, would appreciate your telling me know.

Fondly,
Bobbie E

Was the writer of the Texas MSS Mrs. Paul Sloan?

Dear Jean:

I have your & Ben's applications ready to present to the MS Genealogical Society. Glad you are interested in joining. Also glad you will schedule your seminar on a different Saturday. Selfish of me - I want to come! Trudi & Rick will come with me. We are interested in N.C. Hope you will choose it over Tennessee. That's being double selfish!!! Mine mostly followed the usual pattern of Va, the Carolinas, Ga, Ala, & MS.

Since writing, I have straightened my Warren's out. Before I had had a chance to write Reba Murphy telling her you suggested I write ~~for~~ her, she telephoned followed up by a letter. Mrs. Eliz Warren Dresser had told her I might be able to help her. Fate? Isn't that funny that we were recommended to each other? At about the same time.

She has good records - Copiah County did not burn - I'm so use to working in these burned Counties. She goes back to Joseph Warren who was on 1840 Hinds census & with land in Copiah. He died that year. I do not know if he belonged to the John Warren Sr family of Marion County or if he fits into my Thomas Warren of Va family.

But I looked on my cyndex for 1840 MS and found that the Joseph M had moved to Lauderdale Cty, so I re-moved him in a hurry as not being mine. I also checked later censuses than 1850 & found the place of births was not consistent. Some said they were born in MS which was right - so I switched right back to Joseph Warren, son of Lott, in Covington in 1820 - just as I had always carried him on my chart. I only have an affidavit from Rev. Bishop that Joseph Warren was the father of Rebecca Roberts, but I may test it out on the Jamestown Society to see if they would accept it. I don't know where I could ever get more proof. That is my only weak line. I can document everything to that time from me - and I had everything documented from him back to Thomas.

A new book "House of Warrens" just came off the press. The author is Ardith Warren Stone. It brings the lineage down thru Joseph. The data on him is weak so I have to deal with that generation. If you come across anyone working on my lineage Joseph, keep me in mind.

I surely will thank you for keeping my Roberts in mind. I corresponded with a descendant of the Richard Roberts in Jackson County, but was not able to connect to them. I've also seen the

Pascagoula Public Library
Genealogy & Local History Dept.

Isaac group in Greene County on Ga passport, census etc. I couldn't connect. If you should come up with a brainstorm, please speak up!

Joseph Warren's wife was Rebecca Walker. Do you happen to know who her father was? I have noticed Hezekiah Walker lived near + I had wondered about him. He was connected with my Bush family. There were several Hezekiah's, even a Baptist minister back in Edgefield, SC.

I always love hearing from you —

Most sincerely,

Roblyz

The water color sketches are next sealed on the plastic eyes, which have been molded so fit the patient before Miss Reardon starts work on them. Before the war for the most part, artificial eyes were imported from Germany. They were made of glass and were not designed for any one person. Then, when imports were cut off and the necessity came along for inventing a substitute, the Bethesda Naval Hospital's dental department got together with the medical illustration department. They devised a prosthetic eye made from an exact anatomical "impression" of the

Memory Of Mary L. Warren
Oct. 16, 1969

God saw you were getting tired, and a cure was not to be; so He put His arms around you and whispered "Come With Me" With tearful eyes as we watched you suffer, And saw you fade away, Although we loved you dearly, We could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest; God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best. Mother, you're always a memory away, Until that great homecoming.
